

“Giving Back the Freedom They Fought For”

Midwest Battle Buddies Code of Conduct

- At all times you and your dog are to be clean and groomed.
- You will be expected to behave in a courteous manner when out with your dog.
- You will be expected to have your dog relieve itself before entering a building.
- When out in public, working at events and training you are to have poo bags and wipes with you at all times.
- Be aware of your anxiety level and that of your dog and excuse yourself if necessary
- The only people who are allowed to train are the Battle Buddies trainers. If you are not happy with something, consult a Battle Buddies trainer only.
- The only training methods that you are allowed to use are those discussed and approved by the Battle Buddies trainer.
- When training, stay in a close group and pay attention to the trainer.
- When your dog is in service vest it is your job to educate the public. There is no public interaction of any type permitted while the dog is in vest. Petting, feeding, etc. is NOT allowed.
- At all times in public and in unfamiliar surroundings your dog is to remain on leash.
- Your dog is to remain under control at all times when in public. Do not allow your dog to interact with other dogs, including non-service dogs, while in vest.
- Your dog is never to be tethered to an object. The dog is to remain with you at all times.
- Your dog is never to be crated for extended periods of time unless necessary for travel or as recommended by the veterinarian. Your dog is not to left alone in a yard for extended periods of time.

I have read the above MBB Code of Conduct and agree to abide by and be bound by such requirements at the time I am provided a service dog in training and continuing thereafter. I understand that failure to follow these requirements may result in removal of the dog from my custody.
